With prospects for record prices on the 1974 wheat, don't get caught with garlic in the grain. Now is the time to spray with ¾ lb. 2, 4-D ester per acres. If you are top dressing with liquid N the 2, 4-D can be applied with the nitrogen. Barley can also be treated in this manner, but oats may be injured at this rate.

Wait 1 to 2 weeks after treatment before seeding legumes.

It's time to fertilize asparagus This fine vegetable is a heavy user of nitrogen and potash. use a liberal application of 10-10-10, destroy all weeds and spray with Simazine (princep) 1 ounce per 1000 square feet.

The 11th Annual Animal Industry day has been scheduled for Friday, July 19, 1974 at Virginia Tech.

It's encouraging to note that fertilizer use from July 1 through December 31, 1973 was 28% greater than the same period of 1972. This will help a lot this spring.

But on the other hand if fertilizer use for fiscal '74 is to reach what it has been in the past year, approx i m a t e l y 625,000 tons will have to move during the period January 1 through June 30. The problem we face is that there may not be that much in the supply system.

Some dealers have indicated that calcium nitrate, a 15% material, may be available from Norway. If this source developes, the cost may be 30c to 35c.

Can farmers afford to use nitrogen that costs this much? Farmers will have to consider the yield increase for each increment of nitrogen for the appropriate soil type and compare it to the cost of that increment of nitrogen.

One important characteristic of calcium nitrate is that it is hygroscopic. It will get wet and soupy, unless it's spread shortly after the bag is opened.

In some cluster housing developments, home owners are saving money with multi-home wells.

In one development 30 wells are being used to provide service to 65 houses. When the next stage is completed, 13 additional wells will raise the number of families served to 141.

There has been a lot of talk about a loaf of bread going to $1 by summer. The Secretary of Agriculture responded to this prospect by saying: "The average price of a 1½ lb. loaf bread is about 47c and the farm value of the wheat in that size loaf of bread is just over 7c. Other costs and profits account for 40c of the 47c cost of a 1½ lb. loaf of bread."

"In order for the wheat in a 1½ lb. loaf of bread to be responsible for $1 bread, the farm value of that wheat would have to jump from the present 7c to 60c-the 60c being the difference between $1 per loaf and the other 40c of non-wheat costs and profits in a loaf. For the farm value of the wheat in a 1½ lb. loaf to rise to that 60c, wheat at the farm would have to rise to about $35 per bushel."

"For nearly 40 years, these costly farm programs have virtually guaranteed grain surpluses readily available to the milling and baking industries at rock bottom prices. Now the milling and baking industries must assume the responsibility for assuring their own supplies of raw materials, as other industries do. Uncle Sam isn't paying for it anymore."

Nobody makes Brunswick Stew like the folks in Southside Virginia.

That's what Guy Friddell, author of "The Virginia Way," concludes in his remarkably beautiful book about Virginia and its people. He writes about Southside's tobacco market, the events and leaders who shaped the area's history, and what this unique part of the State is like today.

"The Virginia Way" is a book you'll enjoy for years. In its 231 pages are hundreds of photographs, many in full color, that picture Virginia from border to border, in every season. It's a volume to treasure. Or to give.

You'd pay $12.95 for "The Virginia Way" at the bookstore. But now, for a limited time, Fidelity offers it at less than half the retail price. Here's how to get yours:

1. Deposit $100 to a new checking or savings account, or add $100 to existing savings. Get "The Virginia Way" for just $5.95 plus tax.

2. Deposit $1,000 in a 1-year minimum savings certificate. Get "The Virginia Way" for just $2.95 plus tax.
3. Deposit $5,000 in a 1-year minimum savings certificate. Get "The Virginia Way" free.

And, of course, your savings earn the highest interest allowed by law in all of the above plans. So you save two ways. "The Virginia Way." Get your copy now at any Fidelity office.

Deborah Tweedy

Who's Who In FBLA

Deborah Tweedy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Tweedy, Jr., was named "Who's Who in FBLA" for the month of March.

Debbie has served as reporter for the FBLA Longwood Region. She has attended all meetings. She attended the State Conference in Richmond. In July, she attended the Leadership Workshop at Massanetta Springs.

Debbie has been very active in FBLA doing such things as selling candy, brought cookies for tea for teachers, worked on the float, participated in skit for October Woman's Club and Canada married Mrs. Canada's parents in 1899 and lived 22 years later to marry the Canadas.

Mrs. Grace Walker was a week-end visitor in the home of Rev. and Mrs. J. E. McLaughlin in Danville. Rev. McLaughlin was guest speaker to the Woman's Day at the Free Spring Church Sun., March 10, 1974. The Junior Choir of St. Luke gave the music.

St. Luke

Attention has been called; and noted that there was an error in the article in this paper recently, relative to the 53rd anniversary of the Canadas.

A packed church of friends and relatives were present at the St. Luke Baptist Church to witness the beautiful church wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Canada March 6, 1921 p.m. The Rev. Benjamin S. Nowlin preformed the ceremony. He was pastor of the St. Luke Church at that time.

Mrs. Canada was given in marriage by her father, the late Mr. William M. Elliott. There were three maids, 3 ushers, best man and bridesmaid. Her two little sisters at that time were candle bearers.

After the marriage, a large crowd attended the reception at the home of Mrs. Canada's parents. This was beautiful and well served. The couple made a short visit with Mr. Canada's sisters and brother-in-law in Madisonville, Va.

The couple lived in the home that Mr. Canada bought while he was quite young. They have been owners of their home ever since and on March 6, 1974 they had their 53rd anniversary and are very grateful to be blessed to live together as man and wife that long. They do appreciate the kind congratulations and anniversary cards from all.

It is very heart warming to think that the same preacher that married Mr. and Mrs. Canada married Mrs. Canada's parents in 1899 and lived 22 years later to marry the Canadas.

The Cornerstone Baptist Sunday School Union will meet at the Mt. Zion Church School, Red. House the 5th Sunday in March.

Mr. and Mrs. Canada have just received notice Saturday, March 16, of the passing of his sister, Mrs. Beatrice Canada Max, in Baltimore, Md. Funeral arrangements are not complete at this writing.
